

Navigation Quiz 1

1. Which collision regulation governs actions in restricted visibility?
2. What is restricted visibility?
3. What methods do you use to keep a good lookout in restricted visibility?
4. What sound signal is to be made by a vessel underway but not making way in restricted visibility?
5. In restricted visibility you hear apparently right ahead three distinct strokes on a bell followed by 10 second of the sounding of the bell and three distinct strokes on the bell. What action should you take?
  - a. Proceed at the service speed of the vessel
  - b. proceed at a safe speed
  - c. stop and ascertain your position
6. You are in restricted visibility on the way to an incident and the chart plotter stops operating. What do you do?
7. A starboard hand mark is to be left on the _____ side when sailing from a harbour?.
8. You are heading west when you see a quick flash (6) white light and long flash every 15 seconds about 15 degrees on your port bow.
  - a. you should alter course to starboard to pass to the north of it

- b. you should alter course to the north
- c. you should keep you course and speed
- d. you should alter course to the south
- e. you should alter course to port and pass to the south of it

9. How much distance in nautical miles is a minute of latitude. How many feet is that?

10. A magnetic course is 345 degrees. Variation is 19 degrees east. The true course is :

- a. 326 degrees true
- b. 004 degrees true

11. Can the GPS be used as a compass?

12. What can a transit be used for?

13. What is tidal set?

14. Drift is:

- a. Speed of the current
- b. Direction the tide is pushing the vessel
- c. Distance the vessel is pushed off course