

10 Rescue Quiz 2

1. What is reserve buoyancy (p.231)?
2. What is the effect known as, where a vessel inclines, of water moving at will across a deck or within a tank (p.231)?
3. What are indications of reduced stability when approaching a vessel (p.231)?
 - a. slow roll with a hang on each greatest angle of heel
 - b. permanent list to one side
 - c. lower freeboard than paintwork indicates
 - d. water in bilges
 - e. vessel is upright
 - f. lying on her side and flopping from one side to the other
 - g. all of the above
4. Name three items that your vessel has on board for damage control (p.233)?
 - a.
 - b.
 - c.
5. What can be the greatest assistance in getting a vessel afloat that is aground (p.234)?
6. What is the task of a sea watch crew in a rescue situation (p.234)?
7. What are the two occasions when firefighting is to be undertaken (p.235)?
 - a.
 - b.
8. Name three possible explosive items that may be found on a burning vessel (p.235)?
 - a.

- b.
- c.

9. What effecting a rescue from a burning vessel what is the most effective procedure to protect yourselves and boat from the heat (p.235)?
10. Name three preparations to be made before engaging in hoist operations with a helicopter (p.236)?
11. If a helicopter has engine failure with a person on the hoist wire, what is the rescue vessel's first responsibility (p.237)?
12. When a person or wire is being lowered from a helicopter, what must you not do (p.236)?