

04 Electronic Communications Quiz 1

1. Name three requirements which pertain to the keeping a vessel log (p.73)?
  - a.
  - b.
  - c.
2. Name five entries expected to be found in a vessel log (p.73/ 4)?
  - a.
  - b.
  - c.
  - d.
  - e.
3. What are the three local VHF stations for coast guard use in you area (p.78)?
4. Give an example of calling Victoria Coast Guard Radio from your vessel (p.78)?
5. What is the phonetic for FO1 (p.79)?
6. You are in restricted visibility on the way to an incident and the chart plotter stops operating. What do you do?
7. When your pager activates, and "IIIIII" appears what does it mean (p.80)?
8. The word BASS sums up VHF communications requirements. What does it stand for (p.80)?
  - a. B
  - b. A

- c. S
- d. S

9. What frequency does the EPIRB on your vessel transmit on?

10. What does SART stand for (p.83)?

11. What action and information must you be able to give if your vessel is in distress (p.83)?

12. What is the correct way of ending a transmission?

- a. Over
- b. Over and out
- c. Out