

05 Practical Seamanship Quiz 2

1. What are the three fundamental principles of seamanship (p.89)?
 - a.
 - b.
 - c.
2. What is the answer to the order "Let go aft" (p.89)?
3. Which type of rope is best for shock absorbing, is strong for its size, does not float, and durable (p.90)?
4. Which is the best knot for tying a rope to a spar (p.91)?
5. Headlines and sternline are used to tie up a vessel. Name two other types of line used to tie up a vessel (p.94)?
 - a.
 - b.
6. What is a slipline (p.94)?
7. Name two types of anchor commonly used on small rescue vessels (p.94/5)?
8. What part of an anchor stops the anchor rotating or rolling (p.95)?

9. When you are going to let go the anchor what is the first item you must check (p.95)?

10. What primarily holds the vessel in place when at anchor?

- a. Anchor
- b. Chain
- c. Rope
- d. Rope and Chain