

Radar quiz 1

1. With the radar operating, there is no longer a requirement to keep a constant lookout by sight and hearing. T / F?
2. When using radar in conditions of restricted visibility, why is it important to maintain your knowledge of you position by another means?
3. When adjusting the gain of the radar, what should the range be set to?
 - a. The shortest range available
 - b. The longest range available
 - c. 1.5 nautical mile range
 - d. 4 – 6 nautical miles
4. What effect does the rain clutter control have on the display?
5. What effect does the use of the sea clutter control have on the display?
6. What does EBL stand for?
7. How is the EBL used?
8. What does the VRM stand for?
9. What is the VRM used for and how is it used?
10. What has greater accuracy on a radar – the bearing or radar range?