SEND YOUR COXSWAIN TO SCOTLAND!

Is there a coxswain in your station that deserves recognition for their dedication to RCM-SAR?

Please nominate one deserving coxswain from your station for a trip-of-a-lifetime to the Advanced Emergency Response Coxswain course with some of the world's best SAR instructors at the Maritime Rescue Institute in Scotland.

The management team will choose two deserving Coxswains for the trip (Dates TBD). The winners will be announced at the RCM-SAR AGM on September 30th in Richmond.

CONTEST DETAILS:

Each station can only nominate one coxswain.

Each nominee must have at least 3 years experience with RCM-SAR and be committed to spend at least one year following their trip educating their stations and RCM-SAR on their experiences.

Each Nomination must include a Statement of Merit, describing why that station's nominee should be chosen. (Statement should be no greater than 200 words).

Nomination deadline is Thursday, September 27th.
